

Holt Community Primary School Newsletter Autumn 4 15th October 2018

Every one was excited when The Circus Ferrel arrived at school for the end of this half term. The child were given workshops on tight rope walking, plate spinning, diablo and juggling skills. The whole school were also treated to a performance by Marty the clown, Grandma and the acrobats.

Author Nicola Davies visited to share her books with years 5 and 6. They enjoyed hearing about her travels and how it inspires her writing. She also spoke about her passion for conservation which is a theme in many of her books.

The whole school was entertained by a concert by Dominika Rosiek and Milho Senou with a special guest appearance by Anna - May on the violin.
