Newsletter Spring 6

28th February 2013

As part of their topic on India the Year 3 made chapattis. When they were cooked they tasted them with passata, hummous and curry.

Red Nose day

Children are invited to wear Red clothes to school on Friday 15th March and bring a small donation. We are also asking children to bring cakes to sell in the playground after school. All of the money raised will be given to the Red Nose Day appeal.

World Book Day

We are marking World Book Day on Thurs 7th March by offering the children an opportunity to listen to stories read around the school by the teachers. If any parents would like to bring a favourite story to read to some children at 2.30pm can they please make arrangements with their class teacher. The children will also receive a book voucher worth £1.

Budgens car park

A reminder that families living outside of Holt are eligible to apply for a parking permit for Budgens Carpark. This could help us to free up some space on Valley lane. Please contact the office for more details.

Governors' Corner

The Governors have to report to parents that Mr. Walters will no longer be Acting Head with effect from the beginning of September. This is good news not bad news- he will be our newly-appointed Headteacher! We are sure that all parents and staff would like to join with us in offering him our congratulations.

Congratulations to Year 1 for winning Clyde the attendance owl this week
