

Holt Community Primary School Newsletter Autumn 2 19th September 2013

Last term the knitting group were busy knitting little hats. These hats will be sent off to Innocent and put on smoothie bottles. Each bottle sold raises 25p to help keep old people warm this winter. Look out for them on sale in Sainsbury's this November. We managed to knit 24 hats. Well done everyone!

Several parents have expressed concerns about whether their children are eating all of their packed lunch. The easiest solution to this is to ask the children to bring home all the empty packages and left over food so that parents can see what has been eaten. From now on we will only allow children to put drink cartons in the rubbish bin and everything else will come home. You may wish to include a rubbish bag inside the lunch box.

Congratulations to Year R for winning Clyde the attendance owl this week.
