

Holt Community Primary School Newsletter Summer 10 8th July 2014

The Year 6 trip to Crowden was a great success. The children completed a range of challenging activities including climbing, canoeing, stream scramble, weaselling, orienteering and archery. More photographs are on display in the junior corridor. A big thank you to everyone who made the trip possible.

Strike 10/7/14 - School will remain open

Several unions will be holding a national strike on Thursday 10th July. Some teachers and teaching assistants have indicated that they may join the strike on that day but the school currently intends to remain open.
