

Holt Community Primary School Newsletter Autumn 9 23rd November 2015

Guardian Newspaper Young Critic of the Year

I am very proud to announce that a group of children from our school won the Guardian Young Critic School of the Year competition. May, Charlotte, Niamh, Ella, Matthew Ho, Giacomo, Nat and Noah reviewed a selection of books on the shortlist for the Children's Fiction Prize. The group attended an awards evening in London on Thursday when they were presented with the award. They met famous authors from North Norfolk's own Kevin Crossley-Holland to Andy Stanton of Mr Gum fame.

Menu Changes

Week one Monday - Cheese and tomato pizza
Week one Tuesday - Sausage, mash and beans
Week one Thursday - pasta bolognese
We will have fish fingers every Friday, in addition baked salmon is available on Week three Friday.

Year 1 and 2 went for an Autumn walk at Spout Hills.

Junior Film club will run on Monday 30th Nov, 7th Dec and 14th Dec.

Year R held a reading café inspired by the book Leaf Man by Lois Ehlert.

It has been reported that we have had a case of threadworm at the school. For information about symptoms and treatment visit the NHS choices web-site <http://www.nhs.uk/Conditions/Threadworms/Pages/Symptoms.aspx>
