

Holt Community Primary School Newsletter Autumn 5 18th October 2017

Year 1 and 2 transformed the hall into a marvellous museum of Our School. The exhibits included a model of a dream school, a materials investigation, people who work at the school, school uniform colouring and three little pigs writing.

We welcomed to the school the new Methodist Church Minister Reverend Cliff Shanganya at the 'Open the Book' assembly.

Year R confidently performed their wonderful first class assembly last week by reciting several traditional nursery rhymes.

The kitchen have decided to make a few changes to the menu. On Tuesday Week 2 they will cook cheesy pasta instead of one pot turkey. On Tuesday week 3 they will replace pork and sweet potato with sausage, mash and veg.

The whole school witnessed a thrilling concert on Friday with Svetlana Mochalova on the cello and Slava Sidorenko on the piano.
